

Woolamai Beach SLSC- Members Code of Conduct

---

Welcome to Woolamai Beach SLSC. This Code of Conduct has been formalised to ensure the safety and welling of all members. It formally advises all members, and parents of our junior members, of the required behaviour which forms a condition of membership.

Enthusiasm

1. Members must at all times abide by all rules and instructions which are given for the safe, lawful and harmonious operation of Woolamai Beach Surf Life Saving Club
2. Members are to uphold the reputation of the club by treating the public with respect and communicating in a professional manner at all times
3. No possession or consumption of any alcohol is permitted by junior members whilst participating in any WBSLSC related events/activities. Any breach of this rule will result in a typical 6 month suspension
4. Senior members must not supply alcohol to junior members under any circumstances whilst participating in any WBSLSC related events/activities. Any breach of this rule will result in a typical 6 month suspension
5. No purchasing, possession or consumption of any illicit drugs is permitted by any member whilst participating in any WBSLSC related events/activities. Any breach of this rule will result in a typical 6 month suspension
6. All active members are permitted to stay the night in the bunkrooms at the clubhouse. Anyone spending the night MUST sign into the Bunkroom Log Book
7. Members must respect the male and female only bunkrooms and showers/toilets at all times, including a noise curfew after 10pm in the bunkroom area
8. Any alcohol that is to be consumed must:
  - a. Be purchased from the Bar
  - b. Be consumed only within the licenced area of the club; and
  - c. Be consumed only by Senior members, or visitors that are over 18 and signed into the guest book
9. Junior members are not permitted to spend the night anywhere other than the clubhouse or residence when they are participating in any WBSLSC related events/activities, unless they are in the company of a parent or legal guardian
10. All members must respect the property of the club and other members. All members are responsible for their own personal possessions at the clubhouse and residence
11. All members must undertake individual and group duties as required for the effective operation of the club. This involves the cleaning up of cooking and eating equipment used and assistance with cleaning of the clubhouse and lifesaving equipment
12. Members will be given an appropriate sanction by the club if they break any of the above rules. If this involves any loss of privilege or any cost, neither the club, its officers, nor any other individual associated with the club will be liable for such costs. Any costs incurred through this process are the liability of the offending member, and/or Junior member's parents
13. In the event that a member breaches this behaviour code and is suspended by the club, a meeting with club Judiciary will be required to reinstate their membership
14. All members and parents of junior members are required to sign below to indicate they agree to and will abide by the above conditions of membership to Woolamai Beach Surf Life Saving Club

Member Name:.....

Member Signature:.....

Parent Name:.....

Parent Signature:.....

Club Official:.....

Club Official Signature:.....